Tentative Schedule

11:30 a.m.	Shuttle Bus Departs from DoubleTree by Hilton
Noon - 1:15 p.m.	Lunch at Ox Yoke Inn® An Amana Colonies Tradition Since 1940, world-famous Ox Yoke Inn is known for American and German food served family style. Located in a home that was built in 1856, the Ox Yoke Inn is a National Historic Landmark.
1:15- 2:15 p.m.	Amana Heritage Museum Tour The museum tour covers three 19th-Century buildings set on spacious grounds—the Noé House, the School House, built in 1870, and the original Washhouse/Woodshed, an integral part of communal Amana. Built in 1864, Noé House was originally a communal kitchen and later a doctor's residence. Exhibits in the Noé House trace the history and development of Amana, depict a church interior, and display the varied crafts and industries of the Inspirationists.
2:20 - 3:15 p.m.	Millstream Brewing Co opened its doors in 1985. The first brewery to operate in Amana since 1884 and the first micro brewery in Iowa, the Millstream Brewery has come to be recognized as the home of quality brews with extraordinary flavors.
3:15 - 4:15 p.m.	Shop and Antique Around the Amana Colonies Attractions include Amana Colonies Antiques, Amana General Store, Amana Meat Shop & Smokehouse, the International Christmas Market and the Chocolate Haus along with numerous wineries.
4:15 p.m.	Shuttle Bus Departs from Amana
